Subject:- Non-adjustment of dues of banks/LIC – reg.

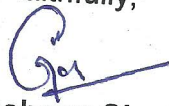

Sir,

We have made series of representations intimating that the dues of banks, LIC and societies against the employees, recovered from their salaries, are not being credited to the concerned agencies causing hardships to the employees. The employees are being served notices of default and heavy interest is being imposed on them. A question arises why employees should suffer when the installments have been recovered, so is in the case of cooperative credit societies. The LIC premium although recovered but not credited. You will agree, Sir, if something wrong happens to any employee the family will not get a single penny from the LIC. Further, the employees are being denied GPF advances or paltry sanctioned due to non-deposit of GPF contributions to the CCAs.

Kindly, therefore, take appropriate remedial measures to avoid hardships to employees and future complication.

With regards,

Yours faithfully,

(Chandeshwar Singh)
General Secretary
