Kind attention is invited to this office order dated 30.06.2025 (Ref-1), wherein detailed guidelines were issued regarding consideration of medical cases. Circles were requested to forward their recommendations in respect of medical cases deferred /to be deferred vide this office order dated 30.06.2025, 30.09.2025, 05.11.2025.

This office is receiving requests from Circles as well as directly from executives seeking transfer or retention/cancellation of transfer orders on medical grounds apart from the names listed in order under reference 1, 2 & 3.

In this regard, Circles are hereby requested to examine such cases and forward their recommendations as per procedure mentioned in the order dated 30.06.2025. Further, the medical condition of the executive/dependents, as the case may be, shall be reviewed by a three-member committee (Ref-1) every year during February/ March, if needed by obtaining second medical opinion from Medical Board and a report for exempting these executives or otherwise from annual / other transfers shall be submitted to Director (HR) by first week of April.

The cases, complete in all respect, along with clear and reasoned recommendation of the Circle as per instructions, may be forwarded to this office for review. It is reiterated that cases received without the explicit recommendation of the Circle shall not be considered.

This issued with the approval of Competent Authority.
